The amount of detail and supporting evidence you provide in your application should be commensurate with the project size, complexity and grant amount requested. You should define, quantify and provide evidence to support your answers. Size limits apply to all responses.

We will only award funding to applications that score satisfactorily against all criteria.

To support your responses you must include mandatory attachments later in the application.

G.1. Assessment criterion 1 (40% weighting)

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Project Impact

Project Impact is the extent to which the project's research outputs will contribute to meaningful advances in health outcomes, practice and/or policy, consistent with the objectives and outcomes described in section 1.3 and the Aims and Objectives set out in the TTRA Research Plan. The assessment of Project Impact will also consider the project's contribution to the objective of the Initiative as described in section 1.2 and your statement against the MRFF Measures of Success.

In your response to this criterion, you should ensure that you:

- articulate the need for a novel solution to a critical and/or intractable health issue that is informed by the findings of a national and/or international landscape analysis and will be of value to the community, health service providers, and health system managers
- demonstrate how the project will establish an evidence base for further research that focuses on implementing the proposed solution
- demonstrate how the views and values of consumers, the community, health providers and/or other end users have informed the proposed research, including how the needs and priorities of consumers (particularly those with lived experience and their carers) have informed the research question
- demonstrate the involvement of academic, industry, state/territory, and/or other partners in the project and how their needs and views have informed its conceptualisation, development and planned translation and implementation.

In addition, all applications that specifically focus on the health of priority populations (defined as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people, older people experiencing diseases of ageing, people with rare or currently untreatable diseases/conditions, people in remote/rural communities, people with a disability, individuals from culturally and linguistically diverse communities, LGBTIQ+ people, youth), should:

- describe how the project will address a health challenge that is a priority for the priority population
- demonstrate leadership by, and involvement of, the priority population in the project, and how their needs, views and values have informed its conceptualisation, development and planned implementation.

Further instructions are in section 6.1 of the grant opportunity guidelines.

G.2. Assessment criterion 2 (30% weighting)

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Project methodology

Project Methodology is a description of the design and conduct of the proposed research in the form of a project plan. The assessment of Project Methodology will consider the scientific quality and feasibility of the project plan and its ability to deliver on the project's intended outcomes and the TTRA Research Plan. Projects are expected to be original and build on (rather than duplicate) research that has already been undertaken.

In your response to this criterion, you should ensure you clearly articulate:

- the research question and how you will utilise novel approaches, methodologies, instrumentation, and/or interventions to address it
- how the project will establish partnerships across the health and research sector that have the potential to transform the delivery of health solutions
- how consumers will be involved in the proposed research, including their contributions throughout the life of the project
- arrangements for project governance and oversight to support its successful delivery
- appropriate milestones, performance indicators and timeframes.

In addition, all applications that specifically focus on the health of priority populations, should also articulate how the proposed methodology includes strong and meaningful leadership and involvement of the priority population, including its people, communities and organisations.

Grantees will be required to report on project progress at 12 month intervals.

Further instructions are in section 6.1 of the grant opportunity guidelines.

G.3. Assessment criterion 3 (30% weighting)

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Capacity, capability and resources to deliver the project

Capacity, Capability and Resources is the relevant skills, knowledge, experience and resources the research team and any partners are contributing to the project. The assessment of Capacity, Capability and Resources will consider the overall composition of the research team, the contribution of individual researchers to the project, and the involvement of partners in the successful delivery of the project with reference to the TTRA Research Plan.

In your response to this criterion, you should ensure that you demonstrate:

- the research team has the capability, skills, leadership and expertise to successfully deliver the project
- the research team includes individuals that bring diverse experiences and expertise (e.g. across disciplines, genders, cultures, lived experience relevant to the research question, career stages and research sectors)
- the research team has the skills, experience and capacity to involve and support consumers (including those with lived experience) in the proposed research, and ensure that this is done appropriately and effectively

- the commitment of partners to the project and how any cash or in-kind contributions will support its successful delivery.

In addition, projects that specifically focus on the health of priority populations, should demonstrate that the research team includes leadership by the priority population, and that the research team has experience in delivering research that addresses the needs of the priority population.

Each Chief Investigator should provide an example from within the last five years of how their research has contributed to meaningful advances in health outcomes, practice and/or policy through the translation or implementation of research findings.

Further instructions are in section 6.1 of the grant opportunity guidelines.

G.4. Assessment criterion 4 (non-weighted)

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Overall Value and Risk of the Project

Overall Value and Risk is the extent to which the project's research outputs will meaningfully contribute to the objective/s and intended outcomes of the grant opportunity, the TTRA Research Plan, the Initiative, and the MRFF more broadly. Your response to this criterion will consist of your Measures of Success statement, proposed budget, and risk management plan submitted with your application.

The assessment of Overall Value and Risk will consider:

- the relative contribution of the outcomes or results you have identified in your Measures of Success statement to the intended outcomes of the grant opportunity, the goal and aims of the Initiative, and the MRFF
- the appropriateness of the requested budget (including the value and type of any cash or in-kind contributions) to support successful delivery of the project, including whether it is sufficiently detailed and justified and represents value with money
- the appropriateness of the risk management plan, including strategies for identifying, documenting, monitoring and reporting on key risks to the completion of the project.

Refer section 6.1 of the grant opportunity guidelines and to the Rating Scale for Overall Value and Risk for further information.
